Deep

Bell X1

I don't wanna shake you off
I love the way we fit
I can't resist one who dares
Nor ones who shares like thatAnd returning to your sea
Somewhere I can bathe my feet
But if the wounds are too deep
You may not have the want
To heal meYou dig it babe
You dig it in deepThe mould has been repressed
And with it all I've known
We have one up on each other
The same mistake
