

Amputations

Death Cab for Cutie

And if it was just how you wanted
You'd be glued to his bones and his brainstem
And changing your image and attitudes
Won't bring you back into your bedroomAmputating as he's waiting
Amputating, he's unresponsive
'Cause you're irresponsibleLittle swinger your bottle is thinking too much
'Cause you're aiming to please way off target
And I'll tell you what you must already know
Of amputating that too slowAmputating as he's waiting
Amputating, he's unresponsive
'Cause you're irresponsibleAmputating as he's waiting
Amputating, he's unresponsive
'Cause you're irresponsibleAmputating as he's waiting
Amputating, he's unresponsive
'Cause you're irresponsible
