

Shakes All Over

Death By Unga Bunga

Girl you make me a mess with the powers you possess.

Yeah, I'll try to understand.

I just don't know what to do, I wanna get it on with you.

And I feel the shakes all over again.

Please don't tell me goodbye.

Why won't you give it a try?

Did you find someone new?

I feel it down to my bones, all sense is lost, there's no control.

Still I try to understand.

If there's a man in my place, I'll take him out, rearrange his face and feel the shakes all over again.

Please don't tell me goodbye.

Why won't you give it a try?

Did you find someone new?

Was it something I said that pushed you away?

Now I'm blue 'cause all I want is you.

You bring me down on my knees, I'm so tired of begging please.

But your body's what I need.

It's about time you see I'm not the man of your dreams.

Feel the shakes all over again

Please don't tell me goodbye.

Why won't you give it a try?

Did you find someone new?
