

Heroine

Sleeping with Sirens

My eyes roll back to see and then fate
I breathe you in
Exalt your flames
Plus those are mine to come here to me
We're wasting time
Darling can you hear me? Heroine my sweetest sin
I can't seem to get enough
Pull me under
Wake me up
Feel the rush
Morphine lover make me numb
Make it so I can't get up
Paper-thin till you sink in
Could you be my heroine? Do you feel exposed?
Let your feelings show
Can I taste you?
Can I replace you?
I need to know
Let's lose our minds
Please stay with me
We're wasting yeah
We're wasting time
Why don't you believe me? Heroine my sweetest sin
I can't seem to get enough
Pull me under
Wake me up
Feel the rush
Morphine lover make me numb
Make it so I can't get up
Paper-thin till you sink in
Could you be my heroine? It starts with the spins
Yeah you got me swimming in
I'm falling to pieces and I won't be whole until you let me in
Until you let me in
Until you let me in
Until you let me in oh Heroine my sweetest sin
I can't seem to get enough
Pull me under
Wake me up

Feel the rush
Morphine lover make me numb
Make it so I can't get up
Paper-thin till you sink in
Could you be my heroine? My heroine
My heroine
Could you be my heroine?
