

Trouble In These Parts

Kenneth Pattengale & Joey Ryan

beauty, i know, lurks here right 'round the corner, i fear dear, you can't be serious judgement is near my mind's always gone there there's trouble herein these parts that I've found on my own a solemn and safe little home slow dance to a lone romance out on the road
there's trouble in these parts here you'll learn how to fit & right in you'll slip i'll wait up for you black turns to blue beauty, i know, lurks here right 'round the corner, i fear dear, you must be serious mercy, i hear
i'll wait up for you
black turns to blue between all the lines all four of my sides to cover me in time
