

Maybe (Ayo Blues)

Ayá»•

Man I love you, but that ain't good cause you're hurting me and I knew you would.

See what I give, aint' what I get.
There's something wrong and you know that.
Maybe I'll be better off without you
and maybe you'll be better off without me.

I want to leave you but what I know is that my love for you won't let me go.

See what I give, aint' what I get.
There's something wrong and you know that.
Maybe I'll be better off without you
and maybe you'll be better off without me.

See maybe I'll be better off without you and maybe you'll be better off without me, without me, without me, without me.
Maybe, maybe, maybe, without me, without me.
