That's Gonna Mess You Up

The Kinleys

Just when you think that you know it all
You'll never fall and that it's all good
And you're gonna win again, it's a sin, that's gonna mess you upJust when you think that you can't be touched
You're on your way up you think you're too much
That's gonna mess you up, it's your ego, your mojo, out of controlThat's gonna mess you up, life has a way
To put you in your place if it needs to
That's gonna mess you up, leave yourself behindLook around you'll find, it ain't all about you
In the end it's who you loved and who loved you
If it ain't the heart and soul stuff, that's gonna mess you upJust when you thought that the girl was yours
She stuck it to you with a note on the door
Sayin' all take and no give, boy that ain't no way to liveShe left you high and dry in the middle of the night
'Cause you didn't treat her right, that's gonna mess you up
You neglected, she rejected, should've expectedThat's gonna mess you up, life has a way
To put you in your place if it needs to
That's gonna mess you up, leave yourself behindLook around you'll find, it ain't all about you
In the end it's who you loved and who loved you
If it ain't the heart and soul stuff, that's gonna mess you upThat's gonna mess you up, life has a way
To put you in your place if it needs to
That's gonna mess you up, leave yourself behindLook around you'll find, it ain't all about you
In the end it's who you loved and who loved you
If it ain't the heart and soul stuff, that's gonna mess you up
