

Revealing Hope

The Hooker Family

Oooooooh...

Can you face your fears with grace?

Can you go on in your weakest days?

Can you hold on till the end?

Can you find the strength to stand?

My God is faithful, strong and true

He is ever watching over you

When you feel like you just can't go on

He's been guiding you through it all

The sun will shine again, I know

The clouds are rolling but revealing hope

Though the struggle it may seem some _____

That's all for today...
