Praying Type

Thorne Empire

I have never been the praying type
But, I believe that heaven is there
I walk through hell almost every night
But I believe it's a pathway

Light that match
Burn it all
I will not kneel
I will not let the devil take my soul
Take my soul

I am no angel
I never said I was
I am no sinner
I am just a broken soul
Just a broken soul
But, I will not let the devil take me home
Take me home

I have never been the praying type
But, I believe that heaven is there
I walk through hell almost every night
But I never stay
I never stay

I walk through hell almost every night
But I never stay
I never stay
