

Festival of Praise

Fred Hammond

And the judgements of his mouth
Thus the word of the Lord
Now I like to take this time to welcome you
Yeah you, so come on in
I'm glad you're here, my friend
Now that you've arrived
Let's get the party started
Yeah, it's time to begin
It's time to sing and dance
A big ol' family celebration
People all over the world
Yeah, they came to celebrate the Lord of all creation
And if you didn't know, let me tell you
It's going to be all the way live
We got plenty to drink, yeah
But it's a brand new wine
Now the guest of honor is both lion and lamb
The savior of all the world, He is the great I Am
So from the bottom of my heart with this single phrase
Let me welcome you to the festival of praise
Come on

Come join us
Let us have a good time with Jesus
