

Seven X Eight

Anjali

If you let her go
You're gonna end up lonely
And if you really know
Yeah, you know, that's your folly
Cause you'll never, never ever
Have a girl like meCause i'm the best
You'll ever have
I can vouch for that...
So don't come to me
With your broken heart
I won't mend it, i'll just wring it out
Oh, you're sorry, it's your folly
You made a big mistakeSeven times five, seven times five, seven
Now what you need
Is to look for your redemption
Seven times eight, seven times eight, seven
Don't look at me, take a look at your reflection
Oh, you're sorry, it's your folly
You made a big mistakeAnd you can search from jupiter to io
You'll never find another girl like me
Cause i'm the hot, lickin, kickin, lustin empress
And it's a shiver, you'll never feel
So you're sorry, it's your folly
You made a big mistakeSeven times five, seven times five, seven
Now what you need
Is to look for your redemption
Seven times eight, seven times eight, seven
Don't look at me, take a look at your reflection
Oh, you're sorry, it's your folly
You made a big mistakeWell, it's too lateYeah, it's just too late, it's just too late
Yeah, it's just too late
