

Girl They Won't Believe It

Joss Stone

Get your head out your dreams they would say
Ooh, shot me down time and time again
Stubborn girl she refuses to change
Catch a cloud but you can't pin me down, oh Girl they won't believe it, no they won't believe it
I finally found some sweet through the bitters of life
Ooh, girl they won't believe it, girl they won't believe it
In a world where the sun's even shining inside, ooh Took a minute but I caught it, they won't believe it
Mmm, now I'm in love in a deeper way, a way
Tell me who would have thought this could satisfy me
All I need is a kiss from a melody Ooh, girl they won't believe it, girl they won't believe it
That I've finally found some sweet through the bitters of life
Ooh, girl they won't believe it, girl they won't believe it
In a world where the sun's even shining inside Ooh, they won't believe it, girl they won't believe it
I've finally found something sweet through the bitters of life
Oh, girl you won't believe it, girl they won't believe it
In a world where the sun's even shining inside Ooh, girl you won't believe it, girl they won't believe it
I finally found some sweet through the bitters of life
Ooh, say girl they won't believe it, ooh Girls say, say it now, ooh, say with me, ooh
Say it now, ooh, say with me, ooh
Say it now, ooh, say with me, ooh
Say it now, ooh, say with me, ooh
Say it now, ooh, say with me, ooh, say it now, ooh
