

Sunrise (feat. Louise Carver)

Joe Bermudez

Weeping through the glass
Counting down the hours
Before I hit the bottom
Footsteps in the sand
Are leading me in deeper
Where the scars hurt again
Standing on the edge of the world
With everything to lose
In search of sunrise
Sunrise
Standing on the edge of the world
No one else I'd choose
In search of sunrise
In your eyes
All I want is another chance
Another chance
I know I was wrong
All I want is another chance
Another chance
I know I was wrong
Empitness inside
Reflecting on the mistakes
Before I reach the end
Echos from the past
Are crying out a sad song
When the tears fall again
Standing on the edge of the world
With everything to lose
In search of sunrise
Sunrise
Standing on the edge of the world
No one else I'd choose
In search of sunrise
In your eyes
All I want is another chance
Another chance
I know I was wrong
All I want is another chance
Another chance

I know I was wrong

I was wrong

Oooh I was wrong

I was wrong

I'm sorry
