Maniac

GBH

He'll be buzzing in your head
When you're long gone
Fever burning, stomach churning
He can take you onManiac, he's a maniac and he's on the looseA wild eyed maniac seeks you out
He wanted some revenge
A man obsessed, a man possessed
He'll get you in the endHe can read all your thoughts
So don't run for cover
There's aftermath in his path
He's gonna maim anotherYour face will turn a ghostly white
As he comes into view
To slice you up is not enough
He must disfigure you
