

Cut the Strings

Gatsbys American Dream

this is frustration
this is me using the same tricks and getting sick of it this is me throwing pieces against the wall hoping something will stick this is awful awful to think who decides what we should or should not say what ends up on the cutting room floor apparently it's not my choice to make so here's another one
is it good enough
please do accept
i need this if it's not up to par i just can't think of what i might do next i'll just appease and conform to your tastes let's not forget about who we are it gets in the way
let's not forget who we used to be
it will never be the same
this is frustration
