

Unbreakable Chain

Dream Evil

If you think that you're strong on your own. You best think again.

I've been there, I've been everywhere So listen my friend Hear me out let me try to explain I see what you think

But a chain is never stronger than, its weakest link Don't be afraid, altogether we can make a change

let's all bind together, to form an unbreakable chain You and I belong

together we're strong

Only the fight remain

united we are strong

but weak on our own

No one can break this chain

No they cannot break this chain.. When you're low, feeling weak and confused - don't be alarmed Cause I'll be there, to back you up like a log - we're brothers in arms.

Immovable stand together in snow, wind and rain the millions of people who've form the unbreakable chain You and I belong

together we're strong

united we are strong

but weak on our own

No one can break this chain

No they cannot break this chain.. You and I belong

together we're strong

united we are strong

but weak on our own

No one can break this chain You and I belong

Together we're strong

Only the fight remain

United we are strong

But weak on our own

No one can change how we feel

No! no one can break this chain..of steel
