

Big Dark Love

Murder By Death

I sit at my table
I drink from my cup
I gaze down the stairwell Flip through the telephone book
I spit out the window Oh, it hit someone isn't that fun
but it's not enough I got the bends I got the shakes
It never ends
it always aches
in the night
in the cold
it comes on pain like a searing light cuts like a dull knife
are you awake
can i come over tonight i know it's a big dark love let me in me and my love
