

No Passion

Car Seat Headrest

betraying no emotion underneath your aviators and your flight attendant uniform perfectly tailored for your 91 degree angle shoulders fucking goddamn how I love your shoulders ---

I only like people who hate the things that brought us together.

ahhhhhhAHHHHHHHahhhhhhahhhhhh.

I want a man who would hate me for what I am

I want a man who would leave me if I told him my deepest/darkest secrets

Like I would leave him in a situation where our positions were reversed.

In my wildest sexual dreams
