The Longest Mile (Album Version)

Circa Survive

You'll retire with some
Well deserved space that you needed years ago
It's not the same as if you pushed it away
Unescorted through the longest mile
Now that it's overI have some regrets
But I can just forget themI must admit now going down within this ship
I couldn't have a better crew to travel with
If I make it in one piece back to land
I will never sail again
NeverPeace and quiet
Start to interrupt,
Your life is not the same as you had hoped
Living up to all the things that you played down
If you don't get a hold of it, I wont be around
Now that it's overI've made mistakes
It's all I have to learn fromI must admit now going down within this ship
I couldn't have a better crew to travel with
If I make it in one piece back to land
I will never sail again,
NeverNow that it's overI can't help
But think that
We're coming to the end
If that is
The case then
I know we can't pretend
To never make a sound again
Never make a sound
