

I Will Be Nothing Without Your Love

The Ready Set

Sink me,
Into this tangled web I weave.
Deep sleep,
Where we are safe, where we are free. Why should I wake, when
There's so much at stake?, I
Lose if I open my eyes.
Cause this is something bigger than we both know
Bigger than we both know.
(We've got the space in our hearts)
For something bigger, but you don't show
Deny me, but you know I will be nothing without your love.
I will be nothing without your love.
I will be nothing without your love.
Love. I'm thinking about the way my mind translates songs.
Turns them into feelings and then makes them into these thoughts,
Where you surround me, shimmering around me.
Maybe it's your energy either way it's astounding. I wanna live in your heart and mind,
Technically everything, so imma keep my lid shut.
Time like the lines are red in between time.
Time and again, my hearts Why should I wake, when
There's so much at stake?, I
Lose if I open my eyes.
Cause this is something bigger than we both know
Bigger than we both know.
(We've got the space in our hearts)
For something bigger, but you don't show
Deny me, but you know I will be nothing without your love.
I will be nothing without your love.
I will be nothing without your love.
Love. Magnetic since I met 'cha
Chemical potential
And you do, feel it too, so you're gonna
Run with me through my city.
I could take you with me
Anywhere, anywhere, anywhere. Magnetic since I met 'cha
Chemical potential
And you do, feel it too, so you're gonna
Run with me through my city.
I could take you with me

Anywhere, anywhere, anywhere. I will be nothing without your love.
I will be nothing without your love.
I will be nothing without your love.
I will be nothing without your love. I will be nothing without your love.
