

The Wrestle

Frightened Rabbit

The crumpled ocean with
No boat trip
The dark waters stole
My clothingThe shape stirs beneath me
A pulse pounds along blood streams
First bite marks
Beginning ofThe clothe-less wrestle
The clothe-less animalBare those teeth to me, please
My eater
You can see all of me
Naked with fearThis is the test I left land for
To grip flesh and pull muscle
Well, the vice grips of the struggle
I can't give into, we oweThe clothe-less wrestle
The clothe-less animal
Animal, animal, animalMy enemy
Please stay close to me
No breath left
Cold breath thiefThe last gasp of air, burst lung
They fight fathers, the weak son
The last taste of salt in my mouth
The skin breaks, there's no soundThey tore limb from limb
There is bone, there is gristle
I'm despairingThe clothe-less wrestle
The clothe-less animal
Animal, animal, animal, animal
