Twelve Steps to Nothing

Vision of Disorder

You feel ill, you feel ill
You feel ill, you feel sick
You kill yourself, bleed the vein
The dogs are calling
The dogs are calling my name through the treesConfusion come clear in the depths of the blur
Time can't, time can't, time won't save you
Time can't spareI know it hurts, I know it burns
But someday you'll see
True faith absorbed all of needle's plungeSo sister don't follow me, I walked down a road
And now you know I will never leave, leave, leavePush it, pull it, let the blood run over the skin
These tears, these tears are only revealing half the sin9 to 5, to the bone
And all your lives you're just killing timeI don't know where to go
I don't know where to goSo kill yourselves, bleed that vein
The dogs are calling
The dogs are calling my name through the trees, leave, leaveConfusion comes [Incomprehensible]
Confusion come clear in the depths of the blur
[Incomprehensible]
Time can't, time can't, time won't save you
Time can't spareI know it hurts, I know it burns
But someday you'll see
True faith absorbed all of needle's plunge
