

Eleanor Rigby (Live At Sundown Festival, 2008)

Pain

Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people Eleanor Rigby, picks up the rice in the church
Where a wedding has been, lives in a dream
Waits at the window, wearing the face that she keeps
In a jar by the door, who is it for? All the lonely people
Where do they all come from?
All the lonely people
Where do they all belong? Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people Father McKenzie writing the words of a sermon
That no one will hear, no one comes near
Look at him working, darning his socks in the night
When there's nobody there, what does he care? All the lonely people
Where do they all come from?
All the lonely people
Where do they all belong? Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people Eleanor Rigby, died in the church
And was buried along with her name, nobody came
Father McKenzie wiping the dirt from his hands
As he walks from the grave, no one was saved All the lonely people
Where do they all come from?
All the lonely people
Where do they all belong? Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people
Ah, look at all the lonely people Look at all the people
Look at all the people
Look at all the people
Look at all the people
