

Alive!

Ayreon

[Prodigy:]
Patterns are forming
Breaking through the noise
A beautiful symmetry
Slowly falling into place Inspiration is flowing
Filling up the void
A perfect harmony
Full of elegance and grace I've come alive
The road is so much clearer now
I'm finally awake
Destiny waits [Father:]
Oh, am I getting through to you
Can you hear me, son?
I never doubted you
I always knew you'd win this fight I am reaching out to you
Can you help me, son?
I'm so close to the answer
But I need your brilliant mind We've come alive
Our goal is so much closer now
Now it's time to turn the page
Destiny waits
Now we will fulfill our fate
Destiny waits!
