You send me flowers

Silje Nergaard

Listen boy you've met your match
I've closed my heart
Secured the latch
I'll keep it locked should you decide
It's time
To help me swallow foolish pride
And to take me for
Yet another ride
Onto that carousel i'll climb
Without a word you'll leave me there
Just hanging in the airThen you send me flowers
Your flesh is willing
Your mind is weak
Thinks flowers speak
Flowers
Send me more bouquets
Won't you try to change your ways
Then you send me flowers
Your way of winning
Time and favour
Hope i'll waver
Flowers
Send more bouquets
Won't you try to change your ways
My daysListen i'll disprove your hunch
That sending flowers
By the bunch
Is gonna help you win me back
This time
Not every door that sorrow closes
Can be opened by your roses
Won't let their fragance cloud my mind
You must learn that tender care
Means all in a love affairBut you send me flowers ...
