Chained to You

Von Grey

I am not your keeper
Ill break my back carrying you around
Why should I be your savior
When you burry yourself in the groundYour pain knows its way
Around the maze of my veins
Hits my heart, even though I pray
That my strength will not be slainYoure going down, Im going too
Cant walk away, Im chained to you
What am I supposed to do
If you go my heart goes tooYour tears awoke my thirst
Instilled the fear in my bones
Our love is like a curse
Your fears became my ownYour love turned into chains
This is insaneYoure going down, Im going too
Cant walk away, Im chained to you
What am I supposed to do
If you go my heart goes tooYoure going down Im going too
Cant walk away, Im chained to you
What am I supposed to do
If you go my heart goes tooYoure going down, Im going too
Youre going down, Im going too
Youre going down, Im going too
