Hello Stranger

Celeste Buckingham

Today is the day
i promised i would pay my debts and my dues I have no regrets but you haven't caught me in no not in bed but I have no excuseexcept hold me and tell me that you'll be here to love me everynight and that somehow you'll miss me and all of my fooling around and fightsour love is bittersweet it's tasty but it's weak the morning kiss again still burns me on my cheek no i dont need a mother i dont need a brother to telling me what to do but this dont matter - hello strangeri must confess that you are still the best cause the rest don't love me like you do but this pain in my chest that i feel when i ur you got me thinking of you oh what should i do it was easy before you said you loved me thats just sad now i want you to hate me and tell me you're angry when im bad im bad .. im bad ...our love is bittersweet its tasty but its weak
but this dont matter - hello strangerno matter what i say, you let me have my way i wake up to your face every morning the sun is in my eyes exposing my disgues im hating what im become oh im a creature of the night and i hate myself for needing youits bittersweet its tasty but its weak
no i dont need a mother you are my lover and im always goin' back to you but this dont matter - hello strangerour love is sweet

its strong
but we dont need no one
no one
no moreour love
no one
no one
