

Poison

David Correy

I know that you're no good for me
You are the poison, you are the dream
You see the devil in my eyes
I see in yours the light
oh-oh-oh
I will try n I will follow
U until there's no tomorrow
Give it up if u think you can run from me
Lovin you is in my bones
I have tried I can't let go
This is only the beginning to a very beautiful thing
Who's gonna take the blame
I gladly will, I'm not ashamed
I had enough of foolish games
We made mistakes but we can change
I will try and I will follow
You until there's no tomorrow
Give it up if you think you can run from me
Loving you is in my bones
I have tried I can't let go
This is only the beginning to a very beautiful thing
Oh yeah
I will try
I will follow
I will try
I will try and I will follow
You until there's no tomorrow
Give it up if you think you can run from me
Loving you is in my bones
I have tried, I can't let go
This is only the beginning to a very beautiful thing
