17

The Butchies

arrested in the morning sun the breaking of the crops today the smoke from a hundred miles would you bargain if you had the chance to go back & forth again and fall forever forever forever fall 17 living for no end tonight never wanted her like this I never wanted her like this I'm running out the door gonna see a rock show now gonna be so naive smoking fags with fags with fags with fags 17 living for no end tonight love for you for free nothing but this afternoon what you wore what you said don't you forget about me Mr. Adams, I'm not smart enough for scholars for you for free this feeling
