

Entering Eternity (Demo)

Falconer

Riding through the echoes of the past
While the hooves pound to the ground
Looking through the mist of the night
In the dim and covering light of the moonPale cold moon be my guide
Through this forest of the dawn
Enchanted wolves lead the way
To the land of infinity and destinyI am entering eternity, unfolding a new day
My future waits for me to take me far away
I am opening realities never known before
Here will my soul fly free forevermoreNew dimensions open for me
As I reach my final horizon
Entering the world of the spirits
Dwelling on the shadow side of the living worldI am entering eternity, unfolding a new day
My future waits for me to take me far away
I am opening realities never known before
Here will my soul fly free forevermoreI'll be the soul of the wild hawk
The whispering in the blowing wind
Or at the misty gladeI'll be the beast as the hunting wolf
Or the prey as the hunted hind
I'll be riding rays of light
Or lurking in the night's shadeI am entering eternity, unfolding a new day
My future waits for me to take me far away
I am opening realities never known before
Here will my soul fly free forevermoreI am entering eternity, unfolding a new day
My future waits for me to take me far away
I am opening realities never known before
Here will my soul fly free forevermore
