

The Worth Of The Wait

Ivan & Alyosha

She makes me feel heavy
When I'm high above the ground
And I just can't hear a sound
She translates
And I quickly understand
She walks within her wisdom
That brings me to my knees
I'm begging her, saying, "Please, won't you come home
with me again?"
All the years of wasting away
I understand the worth of the wait
She makes me want to work so hard
Like the old-timers did
Back when you could drink beer
Who's to say we can't live like that now?
She holds me to my promise
When my lies are coming through
If only she knew
I'd fall
with my crutches kicked away
All the years of wasting away
I understand the worth of the wait
When my will is dead
Can you change me to your ways?
When my fears have arrived
Can you comfort me like you said?
When everything is broken
She'll build it up again
To show her love begins
Like a whisper in the wind
Like a whisper in the wind
