Without Him

Christina Grimmie

Right from the start he lured me in
Took me to places I've never been
I think I'm in love
I think I'm in love

He might have bent me but I didn't break
He rearranged the map I made
But I think I'm in love
I think I'm in love

Now am I crazy? Why can no one understand, that I'll never find a better man
Oh no

I'm just imagining a life without my baby
And I know, I know
This life ain't meant to be lived without him
Without him
I know, I know
This life ain't meant to be lived without him
Without him
This life ain't meant to be lived without him
Without him, I know

They say this is America
Free speech, free will
But I don't even care at all Can't seem to fight this needing him every day and night
Why can't I just try to speak my mind to him

Tell him all the things that he probably thought was coming but didn't want him thinking that I'm trying to rush it Please, dear God, give me the words
'Cause you know my tongue ties as soon as I see him blushing

I get my thoughts put it on a page
I might get to find a way out of the maze
That I built for myself in some kind of haze

And if the right words come to me one by one

I hope he tells me that he loves me the same
I hope he don't laugh or worse, walk away
'Cause the honest to God truth of the matter is I just can't live my life without you

Right from the start he lured me in
Took me to places I've never been
I think I'm in love
I think I'm in love

He might have bent me but I didn't break
He rearranged the map I made
But I think I'm in love
I think I'm in love

Now am I crazy? Why can no one understand,
that I'll never find a better man

I'm just imagining a life without my baby
And I know, I know
This life ain't meant to be lived without him
Without him
This life ain't meant to be lived without him
Without him, I know

I'm not one to really talk at all speak up only when the time is right or when it calls for the big guns problem is where to speak from
I hear it's your heart that does all the talking

Hurry up you got no time to waste
'Cause this is the man I'm loving for always
And the honest to God truth of the matter is I just can't see my life going on without you!

Now am I crazy? Why can no one understand,
that I'll never find a better man

I'm just imagining a life without my baby
And I know, I know

This life ain't meant to be lived without him
Without him
This life ain't meant to be lived without him
Without him, I know
