

Everywhere I Go

Jennifer Love Hewitt

Last night, did you understand
How I trembled inside when you held my hand
And do you know when I'm alone, I always pretend
That we are more than friends
And I'm dreamin' of your kiss
When I lie awake in the dark
How I'm wishin', I could share
The secrets of my heart
You're there everywhere I go
(In my heart, in my soul)
In every face I see, along this winding road
Endlessly, I'm so lost in love
(In my heart, in my soul)
I wish that you could know, everywhere I go
(I want you)
I hear your voice, going 'round in my head
No matter who's talking to me, I hear you instead
So here we are again but not like before
I want to give you so much more
If you're feelin' that my touch
Is growin' stronger, maybe it's true
I cannot hide it from myself
I cannot hide it from you
You're there everywhere I go
(In my heart, in my soul)
In every face I see, along this winding road
Endlessly, I'm so lost in love
(In my heart, in my soul)
I wish that you could know, everywhere I go
(I want you)
I'm so happy now, you finally found out
Tonight this love is letting go, whoa, whoa, oh, baby
If you're feelin' that my touch
Is growin' stronger, maybe it's true
I cannot hide it from myself
I cannot hide it from you
You're there everywhere I go
(In my heart, in my soul)
In every face I see, along this winding road

Endlessly, I'm so lost in love
(In my heart, in my soul)
I wish that you could know, know, know, everywhere I go
(I want you)
(In my heart, in my soul)
Everywhere I go
Every face I see, along this winding road
Endlessly
(In my heart, in my soul)
Everywhere I go, I need you, oh, oh, oh, oh
I want to see you, hear you, feel you
(In my heart, in my soul)
Everywhere I go, I want you to know
