Hard to Find

Squeeze

I tried to tie you to the bed
Saliva at my lips
I made it look so comfortable
But could not feel to grip, hipYour eyelids flickered with surprise
As suddenly you saw
Your hands and feet all bound and gagged
And me out on the floorIt gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets so hardI tried to dance around the room
In ballerina tights
With music from the Valkyries
And dimmers on my lightsYou tapped your feet
And said that I should take another twirl
You said that I would be so good
If I was just a girlIt gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets so hardI try to touch you with a song
Arouse you with some grapes
Enchant you with some lavender
But this was my mistake'Cos you prefer to move around
To play at postman's knock
I'd like to see your sails go up
The face smile on your clockIt gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets harder and hard, so hard
It gets so hard
