

Diced Pineapples (DatPiff Exclusive)

Tyga

My Isis goddess, a peach garden
Sipping Merlot, beach bums, bumping Bob Marley
Reggae party, shirt Cavalli, dress highly Highly infatuated, spending what you call life savings
Hi ladies, nice day, aint it?
South France be my new lady, canvas face paintings
If God were me, youd be more jealous, the horny
Id backtrack, hop on the right track with a new somebody
Now lets back track two years, where I met you at Night life, popping bottles, acting like you wasnt impressed with that
That shit, I do for you, I never lack
Need that, got that, never did I second guess
Took you out that C-class, put you in that SLS
No more Southwest, now its like private jets
Now all you got is ex-roommates
Cause all you got now is too much room space, shoe space

[Hook]

Same page but a different day
Everything sweet, peace till a nigga be down and out
Same shit you said yesterday
Cant take no more of your shit cause I can do better without you
I can do better without you

[Verse 2: Tyga]

Symbolic tattoos cover the scar
Heart tell 'em love move
Cause of you Ill probably never accept whats due
Except whats due, exempt from them nights I couldve been single too
Moonlight dinner, dark denim
How we losing, we was up in the ninth inning
The nights ending, attitude on a fire chariot
Aint too hilarious, find it embarrassing, you crazy bitch
All I wanted was pom poms, hug and a kiss
Thought you rooting for this team, saw you on some other shit
Acting out publicly, fans recording the shit
Why you cant play your part and act accordingly?
I guess thats all me, rubbing off on me
Rubbing off on you, now you got an ego, too
Tell her spread far like an eagle do
I dont want nothing to do with you, Im through with you

[Hook]

[Bridge]

You never thought id do it, you never thought id leave you
You told me you loved me, but I never believed you
Your heart was false just like the words you said
Your stupid ass, corny lines trying to fill my head
Shit, caught up in your perfect world, you never heard me cry
Thats why you never expect to see me say goodbye
You know Im better off without you
I can manage on my own, you can still have your perfect life
You could have it all alone, cause Im better without you
[Hook]
