

I Belong (feat. Sofia)

The Cast of Sofia the First

I study hard
I read the books
But everywhere I turn
It seems like there's a zillion things
That I still need to learn I've got the shoes
I've got the dress
That makes me a princess I guess
I've got the right stuff
But is it enough
To make me a success Oh how do I keep on trying and just stay strong
When so many times I wonder if I belong They look at me
What do they see
Am I royal or just pretending to be
But this is the day
To make them all say
That I did it perfectly
I've got to keep on trying and just stay strong
Cause this is my chance to show them that I belong Is it all about the fan or which dress I wore
Cause I would think that what's inside
Should mean a whole lot more So I've got to go
And take this test
I'm gonna try my very best
To make the right move
And finally prove
I'm as royal as the rest
Yes I'm gonna keep on trying and I'll stay strong
Cause this is my chance to show them that I belong There may be things
I may get wrong
But I gotta just stay strong
I'm gonna finally show them
I belong
