

Beyond Good and Evil

At the Gates

Music: Alf/Anders/Adrians/AT THE GATES

Lyrics: Tomas

Jesus, no prince of my starved hell to be
No way, my world it dies with me
Far beyond your eyes they seek beyond bonds of stars and skies,
the kingdom where nothing dies [, where nothing dies]
I am the stars burning in your heart
Beyond good and evil, we will never part
For every man and woman is a star
'Cause I burn inside you all, we will never part [Jesus, no prince of my starved hell to be
No way, my world it dies with me
Far beyond your eyes they seek
beyond bonds of stars and skies,
the kingdom where nothing dies, where nothing dies
I am the stars burning in your heart
Beyond good and evil, we will never part
For every man and woman is a star
'Cause I burn inside you all, we will never part]
