Broken

Antigone Rising

I, I am a diamond and I cannot be broken
I, I am a diamond and I cannot be broken
Mother please don't cry for me
I rolled the dice, just give it some time
If you could just be kind to me
Cause I don't care
The life I waste is mine
It don't mean much in the grand scheme
I've given up and given everything

Chorus
It's worth repeating
Over again
I'll keep my head up
And swallow my pride again
Give it away again
It's been dead so long it can't die there again
I, I am a diamond and I cannot be broken
I, I am a diamond and I cannot be broken

Mother, mine's a foolish game
But the same could be said
Said about yours
He took your youth and he took your name
What did your journey here ensure?

[Chorus]

It's worth repeating
Over again
I'll keep my head up
And swallow my pride again
Give it away again
It's been dead so long it can't die there again
I'm all grown up, I've got my pride
Why let me live to let me die
I'm all grown up, I've got my pride
Why let me live to let me die

[Chorus]

It's worth repeating
Over again
I'll keep my head up
And swallow my pride again
Give it away again
It's been dead so long it can't die there again
