Ruby Lane

Amon DÃ¼Ã¼l

Welcome down to Ruby Lane
Take your pick sir, were all the same
The sky is my one direction
The earth is my bedWelcome down to Ruby Lane
Save your soul man for lifes a game
Receive me as a dancing monkey
And throw me a dimeAnd if you see my brother
Youll know cause hes wearing no shoes
Wont you be so good, man
As to throw him some food?You come back now and share your peace
Well still be here till times release
Im here with my one companion
The road beneath my feetAnd if you see my brother
Youll know cause hes wearing no shoes
Wont you be so good, man
As to throw him some food?Welcome down to Ruby Lane
Take your pick sir, were all the same
Im here with my one companion
The road beneath my feet
Im here with my one companion
The road beneath my feet
