

Master Thief

Texas

If you want to see my sunrise
Well I don't mind
Your lips so full like life itself
Been in love for a while
You know that I just want to see you
Yeah I have for a time
And it's balancing there upon my head
Just like last night on a bottle of wine
Hey you
Do you feel alright?
Hey you
Come on, come on, come on, come on back to me
You want to spend the night together
Pull your body close
So masterthief embrace my heart
Now you decided to show
Come discover what you can't find (talk to me talk to me)
There's no need to think (tell me tell me)
And it hits you there on the back of your head just like
Last night when you started to drink
Hey you
Do you feel alright?
Hey you
Come on, come on, come on, come on back to me
Time is all I have to give
You can have it if you choose
Time is all I have to give
You got me under your wing
Hey you
Do you feel alright?
Hey you
Come on, come on, come on, come on back to me
Time is all I have to give
You can have it if you choose
Time is all I have to give
You got me under your wing
Hey you
Do you feel alright?
Hey you

Come on, come on, come on, come on back to me
