Cashing In

Jerry Leger

Cashing In
Here am I, there you stand
Drinking your cup
Been laughing it up
I can live to the end
Of a matchstick burning
When your phrases stop turning your way
You want it your way
But it's my time now
If you start your crying
I'm cashing in
Do you see what I see
Like a nursery rhyme
Growing up with your lies
You're a star, you're the show
If there's money left to make
You better tell me so
I'm cashing in
Could you take a knife in the back
Catch the bullet off of memory's track
But you know you gotta find your own way back
I'm cashing in
Glass of wine, pint of gin
Tell me where you're aching
And I'll cut right in
Could you aim to socially please
If the sun stopped shining but you're already blinded
Jerry Lee on an old t.v.
I'm the killer too 'cause I said it up to you
No one forgets whether you admit
If you tarnish your name
I'll be waiting in the wings
If you tarnish your name
I'll be waiting in the wings
If you tarnish your name
I'll be waiting in the wings
I'm cashing in
