Natale's Song

Sia

I'm in the wars
Can't speak for crying
Close all the doors
Since I am dying
Pick up the phone
Attempt to call her
I'm all alone
Until she answers
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
She barely speaks

But I hear her breathing
And that's all I need
Someone who's listening
And still she stays
Her time is precious
Until I am safe
She gives her presence
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
