

Leaves of Green

Vio

I want to go out to a place I could call my own.
I want to sing out to everyone,
if for a few I would be known. Let go, try it out.
Don't stop, don't stop pursuing me. I'm going over to those times where I'm at peaceful state of mind.
I'm going over to those times
I'll want to see just one more time. Let go, try it out.
Don't stop, don't stop pursuing me. Leaves of green.
Smell of summer.
All I wanted is right around the corner.
Go out. Don't think. All I wanted is on its way
and I won't remain the same.
In all but name, I'll change,
'til I'm the queen of Spain. I'm ok now.
I'm ok now.
I'll be up and away
'til I'm brought back down. I want to washout, out a bay to where the sun shines during day.
Where it'd be about nothing else than talking outside some café. Let go, try it out.
Don't stop, don't stop pursuing me. Go out. Don't think. All I wanted is on its way
and I won't remain the same.
In all but name, I'll change,
'til I'm the queen of Spain. I'm ok now.
I'm ok now.
I'll be up and away
'til I'm brought back down. 'til I'm brought back down.
'til I'm brought back down.
