

Little Room

Norah Jones

You and me
Me and you
In my little room
There's room enough for us to do
The things we like to do
Oops, I hit my elbow on the doorknob
It's right there
It's by the bed next to my head
But I don't even care
There's stars up on the walls
And they all glow in the dark
And we can hear the children playing
Outside in the park
There's bars on the window
And if there were a fire
We'd burn up for sure
But that's just fine by me
'Cause we would be together evermore
In this little room
In the big city we're so far
From the people that we knew in
My big ol' blue car
If we stick together
Then I know we'll be ok
'Cause when it gets too cold outside
This room is where we'll stay
