

(I Wanna Live In a Dream In My) Record Machine

Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds

Help me
Define the light that's shinning on me
To get back what they've taken from me
And build a little fire where it's coldShow me
The path that leads to all the glory
The words that tell a sacred story
And build a little fire where it's coldI wanna live in a dream
In my record machine
I wanna piece of the world
And everyone inside my mouth
And all the money I waste
Is it a matter of taste?
I wanna piece of the world
And you can't make me spit it outTake me
Back from the darkness
Where they sent me
Give hope to places
Where it can't be
And build a little fire where it's coldI wanna live in a dream
In my record machine
And everyone inside my mouth
And all the money I waste
Is it a matter of taste?
And you can't make me spit it outYou cannot give me no reason
I don't need one to shine
You can't give me no feeling
If it's already mine
You've got one in a million
And if the sun won't rise on my soul
Then I'll go
