Fallen For You

Drake Bell

The first time I saw you I thought you were barefood
Your hair was pulled back, your jelly shoes, I was wondering if I should lie
About my age
Buddy Holly glasses on a Betty Page negative You're lookin so classic handpicked by some Hollywood executive just like Norma Jean
I can't believe I've fallen for you
I can't believe I've fallen for you
way oh
way oh
way oh
the next time I saw you, you asked for a reason I let my love come down now you're spending all your time thinkin how you're gonna get even and I'm by myself

I can't believe I've fallen for you
I can't believe I've fallen for you
I can't believe I've fallen for you
I can't believe I've fallen for you
Good morning now
It's a good morning
The Hollywood ending it never came easy the bride to be can plainly see and now she says she's ready to kill me
And I'm so afraid
I can't believe I've fallen for you
I can't believe I've fallen for you
I can't believe I've fallen for you
I can't believe I've fallen for you
