Hollywood Ending

The Urge

Did you want it this way, breaking us down
A little bit at a time
Is it easier now that I'm not around
Oh, is it time to draw the line
We don't have to pretend
You got your Hollywood ending
(Another Hollywood ending)
You got your Hollywood ending
(Another Hollywood ending)
Leave it to me to act like a fool
Begging you to come back
When I had you I had everything
Now all I have is this photograph
There's nothing here to defend
It's not a Hollywood ending
(Another Hollywood ending)
It's not as bad as it seems
(Another Hollywood ending)
It's hard to give up your dreams
(Another Hollywood ending)
It's not a Hollywood ending
(Another Hollywood ending)
Well, you don't have to go
Oh, you don't have to go
You could've been the star of my show anytime
No, you don't have to go
I called on the phone, came by your home
To find out that you're not alone
Now we don't have to pretend
That it's a Hollywood ending
(Another Hollywood ending)
It's not as bad as it seems
(Another Hollywood ending)
It's hard to give up your dreams
(Another Hollywood ending)
All that glitters will fade
(Another Hollywood ending)
Just like the promise you made
(Another Hollywood ending)

Just like the promise you made
(Another Hollywood ending)
Another Hollywood ending
Another Hollywood ending
Another Hollywood ending
