Bite My Tongue

Saskwatch

Love come back to me
we can make it better be what we used to be love you to the letter

Well I bite my tongue
and buy my time
just to turn your water into wine
so much in love
on those sweet nights
but the feelings gone
and it's alright

help me feel this flood flow for eternity
like an asteroid

Well I bite my tongue

Been jumping in shadows
in the safety of my home
and I'm not so sure
I can do this on my own

and it's alright

and I'm not so sure
I'm burning the house down with my mind in whose control
and I'm not so sure
