Saints and Angels

Sharon Shannon

This is a wide world we travel and our paths rarely cross And we do a whole lot of living in between
So come and share
more than time
We'll put our cares
far behind While we sail
the ship that never goes to seaIt could be months it could be years Before we find each other once again standing here
So until then my friend
I have a wish for you Many hearts
to keep you warm Many lights
to guide you through the storm And may the saints and angels watch over youAnd may the saints and angels
watch over you
And may the saints and angels
watch over you
