The Hero

Martin Davich

One by one they all fall down
Torn apart without a sound
I'm not your hero
I fall to pieces
I crumble
There's only one way out and it's not thought me
Rise above the inner war
And live like never before
I'm not your savior inside I'm wounded
I'm wounded
And I don't compare
And I don't have the answers
But I care
